JOIN A GYPSY CARAVAN SAFARI TO THE WILDFLOWERS!

Having just completed a fun-filled caravan safari to Karijini, leading tour operators Global Gypsies say that everyone had such a good time that they've decided to run a second safari for caravans, motorhomes and camper trailers this year.

The focus of the next caravan tag-along-tour will be WA's magnificent wildflowers. It will take place in the spring from September 1-10 and will be sponsored by Crikey Camper Hire of Osborne Park. Either caravans, motorhomes or camper trailers will be welcome and all of the driving will be on-road.

The Global Gypsies/Crikey Camper Hire Wildflower Caravan Safari will visit all the 'blooming hot spots' such as Kalbarri and Coalseam National Parks, Mount Magnet, Cue, Payne's Find and Western Flora Wildflower Farm. The tour will travel at a leisurely pace with several two-night stops and plenty of time to 'smell the roses' – or, in this case, the everlastings!

The safari will be led by Global Gypsies Director, Jeremy Perks and his partner, Jan Barrie. Jeremy, a former Tour Guide of the Year, nationally accredited Eco Guide, towing instructor, experienced 4WD'er and qualified mechanic, has led caravan and motorhome safaris for such organisations as NRMA, CIA and Winnebago and also leads 4WD 'tag-along-tours' into the outback.

Included in the price will be special Welcome and Farewell Dinners, national park entry fees, guided bushwalks, stargazing evenings, caravan park fees, towing seminar, Pre-Departure Workshop and Kit, lots of fun activities, resident wildflower expert and a complimentary WA wildflower book. The cost is just $1600 per motorhome/caravan/camper trailer (self-catered) and convoy numbers will be strictly limited.

Says Jan, "With the growing popularity of caravanning, there's a huge demand for professionally escorted caravan safaris. People enjoy travelling with an experienced tour leader and meeting like-minded nomads, it means they can go exploring - independent but not alone. And for novice caravanners, it's the ideal opportunity to practice with their new 'baby', or test-drive a hired van or camper trailer and try before they buy under the guidance of an expert."
